UPLAND SELECTIVE SERVICE BOARD TO SEND 17 THURSDAY

The Upland selective service board will send 17 men to the induction center in Los Angeles on Thursday of this week, according to Edgar Pierce, chief clerk in charge of the Upland office.

On the same day, Mr. Pierce will also have a group of 29 men reporting for their physical examinations. Those passing the examination will be inducted at a later date.

26 DELINQUENTS

Mr. Pierce's records show that on August 1, he had 26 men listed as delinquents in the opinion of the selective service regulation. The all-time high for this list was 42, in January of this year. This is no doubt a very good percentage, inasmuch as the Upland office has handled registrations of 8,879 men and boys, of which about 3,000 are above military age, 45 years.

Mr. Pierce explains that being delinquent does not always indicate that a boy or man is subject to prosecution. In some instances they have moved away, joined the service at some other city, and have neglected to clear the records where they originally registered.

County Supervisors Keep Lid on Sale Of Fireworks Here

The board of county supervisors Monday agreed not to lift the ban on the sale of fireworks in San Bernardino county.

Commercial interests in the county handling fireworks had asked for the removal of the regulation, on the argument it would then be possible for the public to have fireworks for the observance of an armistice day for the present European war.

The supervisors pointed out that the removal of the regulation would permit the sale of fireworks on occasions other than to observe the armistice when it comes.

ASKING STREET EXTENSIONS IN ALTA LOMA

The Alta Loma Community club street naming committee has prepared a recommendation for the opening of Lemon street to Hellman avenue. The committee also recommended that the street which now shares the names of Hermosa and Turner, be renamed Turner, and the street be extended all the way to the mountains, according to Herbert C. Hall, chairman.

The recommendations of the committee will be reviewed by the board of directors of the Alta Loma Community club within the next few weeks, after which the recommendations will be sent to the county supervisors for approval.

Mr. Hall stated that the committee did not make many changes in the renaming of the streets, except to correct instances where streets have two names.

The Alta Loma Community club will hold a regular meeting August 21.

When the money is not awarded, the sum is increased $10 a week.

ROBERT TRAVER HONORED BY NAVY

Robert N. Traver, well known in Upland and Ontario, has just been paid a special tribute by Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal. Mr. Traver has enlisted more than 1,500 officers and enlisted personnel for the navy since October, 1939.

Mr. Traver, a veteran of the First World war, in October, 1939, started to give much of his time to securing navy enlistments until now he is giving his entire time to the work. In March, 1942, he closed his place of business "until victory", so he could give all his time to the work. He was engaged in the sale of sewing machines, and during this time enlisted his three sons, one of whom, Robert N., has now been reported missing in action. He was aboard the U. S. S. Pecos when it was sunk of the coast of Java early in the war. Mr. Travis enlisted 93 men for his best weekly record.

Secretary Latimer To Cast First Ballot for President

Dr. James V. Latimer, secretary of the Upland chamber of commerce, is looking forward to the coming presidential election with much interest. Mr. Latimer is planning to cast his first ballot for president of the United States.

It may seem rather odd to some that a man the age of Dr. Latimer should be casting only his first ballot for president, but in reality he has been a victim of circumstances. For 33 years Dr. Latimer was engaged in community work in China, and his trips to the States did not match up with elections. Dr. Latimer, however, comments that at various times he has been able to exercise his privilege as a citizen at municipal and state elections, but in November he will have his first opportunity to vote for a president of the nation.

During the time Dr. Latimer was in China, he maintained a legal residence in New York City.

ALL BARRACKS HERE TO BE STUDIED

City planning commission members have authorized a general survey of all barracks in the community now housing Mexican nationals and consideration of plans for future barracks.

At the suggestion of Wiley W. Mather the following statement was approved by the commission at it's meeting last week.

"A need for a careful survey of the zoning to be included in the future 'Master Plan' with representatives of the various citrus associations is obvious and should be undertaken at once." As the result of this action, the commission members are to analyze the barracks' situation.

The commission members also voted to recommend to the city council "that the next vacancy on the commission be filled by a person (preferably a director) of the citrus associations who can represent them in the working out of the master plan."

Miss Nellie F. M. Harris has sold her home at 535 North Eighth avenue, to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Froelich, who will take possession of the property at once. Miss Harris plans to go to Pasadena to reside.

SOCIAL SURVEY IN UPLAND PLANNED BY COORDINATORS

The task of conducting a "social survey" in the community and especially among the Mexican population was last night given to a committee headed by Mrs. J. B. McCarter by the Upland Coordinating council.

The council met in the Girl Scout club house for a comprehensive discussion of recreational problems and possibilities and touched on the Teen Age club, outdoor skating rink and general social conditions in the community.

PROTEST RECOGNIZED

Recognizing a protest against the location of an outdoor skating rink at the Girl Scout and Boy Scout site, the council members discussed other sites, including the possibility of using the Upland Citrus association parking lot on Third avenue at A street.

It was reported by Harvey Siegrist that Amos Walters, owner of the Zenz building on Second avenue, had offered to make available for Teen Age club members a room just south of his confectionery.

The council committee handling the club affairs, is to meet with the Teen Age leaders and present the possibilities to them and to give them the responsibility of leadership in developing their own program.

The problem of housing Mexican nationals was discussed and a report of the council's executive committee relative to the Upland Lemon Growers association's proposal for a barracks was read. The executive committee report favored a site for the barracks in the city's industrial section and not at Campus avenue and Fourteenth street.

SURVEY SUGGESTED

Following submission of this report, Mrs. James Martinez suggested that a city-wide social survey be conducted to determine what is being done and what can be done to provide improved social conditions. She made special reference to the Mexican population. On action of the council, this task was referred to the recently formed "Enviornmental Committee," with Mrs. McCarter as chairman.

Mrs. Rohobaugh, who presided Mrs. P. W. Rohrbaugh, who presided at the meeting, said that election of officers would be held at the August 28 meeting of the group and it was suggested that a dinner meeting be held in September for installation of officials.

We Cannot Prevent Upland's Growth; We May Be Able to Guide It

It is not fair to anyone and not sound business for the community for Upland's newspaper to publish unfounded reports of possible expansions. Therefore, any reports of possible developments here are checked and double checked before the reported expansion plans are placed in print.

For example, last Friday's edition of The Upland News told of the possibility of 500 houses being erected by a Kaiser Co. subsidiary here. Two executives of the Kaiser Co. verified the possibility and an option on the proposed site also supported the belief that there was a chance of many new houses being erected here.

Today, however, the report comes from the Kaiser Co. that a site near another town has been selected.

This incident reflects the possibilities that lie ahead for Upland. We "didn't get" the 500 houses, but many more projects are ahead for the southland, for the county and for this citrus area. Some of the possibilities will develop into realities.

As a community, we should be prepared to develop the best possibilities to the fullest. Expansion is certain to come. We cannot stop it, but we should be able to guide that expansion and develop the best that is available.

In some minds there may be a deep feeling of opposition to growth of the community and some people may determinedly want to keep "Upland as it has been". A "status quo" condition can never be maintained in this part of Southern California. New people, new industries by the thousands will come to the southland.

As a community we must be ready to accept development and be prepared through an active chamber of commerce, an alert city council, and a well-balanced planning commission to "select" the projects for Upland and aid in guiding the city's growth.

Soldier Vote Likely To Be About Same As Civilians'

The "soldier vote" is likely to be of about the same trend as the civilian vote.

The North Dakota primary proves that statement. At the end of the official count of civilians' votes, Senator Nye was slightly ahead of Lynn Stambaugh for the Republican senatorial nomination.

Much interest was directed on the count of soldiers' absentee ballots which followed a few weeks later. When these were counted, the close standings were unchanged.

This indicates that the "soldier vote" is not so one-sided as we have been lead to think.

"Every American mother's right to dream of her son in the White House will be lost if Roosevelt is allowed a fourth term," is the political punch for Tom Dewey given by Horace Appel of Los Angeles.

Aid to the needy aged in San Bernardino county appears to be stabilizing, according to a recent survey of county records.

In July, 1943, there were 4,728 people on the old age aid rolls in the county, the association found. High point for the year was reached in November, 1943, with 4,780 persons receiving this kind of relief. For June, 1944, the rolls showed 4,720 persons receiving aid to the needy aged. June, 1944, payments in the county totalled $224,225, an average of $47.51 per person. For the year ending June 30, 1944, $2,697,100 was paid out in aid to the needy aged in the county.

Throughout the state, the needy aged received $88,646,372 for the fiscal year 1943-44, with 157,605 persons on the rolls for June, 1944.

WAR EXPENDITURES

On June 30 the nation concluded its second full fiscal year of the war. Last week Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau reported the total cost of the year. War expenditures were $98,721,000,000 which is 19.6 per cent more than the previous fiscal year, and mare than three times the total outlay for World War I.

By principal categories the year's expenditures had been: $49,302,000,000 for the War Department; $34,538,000,000 for the Navy; $3,811,000,000 for the Maritime Commission; $1,921,000,000 for the War Shipping Administration; $1,431,000,000 for the Treasury Department, principally for lend-lease; and $2,142,000,000 for the Department of Agriculture, also largely for lend-lease.

That war appropriations had passed their peak was indicated last week by Representative Clarence Cannon of ,Missouri, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. Authorizations of $67,000,000,000 at the current session of Congress were $47,000,000,000 less than the record amount appropriated in 1943, he explained. With some $200,000,000 already expended to pay the costs of the war to date, Treasury officials have estimated that the final figure may reach $326,000,000,000 before the war is won.

NEW "A" GASOLINE RATION AVAILABLE AFTER SEPTEMBER 1

New A gasoline books will be available after September 1, according to an announcement today by the Los Angeles district office of the OPA.

The announcement explained that the new A gasoline ration books will be distributed through the ration offices, and not through schools as in the past. They ask that the public withhold all questions until after that date, at which time proper application forms will be provided for the distribution of the new gasoline rationing.

Earl E. Hawthorne, chief clerk of the Ontario-Upland office of the OPA, stated today that he had not received any information regarding the issuing of the gasoline books.

If small plants cannot be used in the war effort and materials and man power are available, we must not keep them out of civilian production. A head start for small business is the most common sense method of reconversion. — Senator James E. Murray of Montana, chairman Small Business committee.

No Changes In Ration Points Until August 13

The July ration point value charts for meats, fats and for processed foods will remain in use at least until August 13, Paul Berksdale d'Orr, OPA ration chief, announced today.

New point value charts are usually issued to become effective on the first of each month. These charts normally require two weeks for printing and for distribution to the nation's 600,000 food retailers. The extension was planned, d'Orr said, to allow for full consideration of possible changes in the meat supply and its affect on rationing.

The 16-point value for one pound of butter, established on July 23, continues in effect.

Three more red ration stamps, each worth 10 points, which became good for buying rationed meats, fats and dairy products on Sunday, July 30, will remain valid until used. These stamps are A-5, B-5 and C-5 in War Ration Book Four, and represent the housewife's quota for a period now set at four weeks, July 30 to August 27.

FIVE BLUE STAMPS VALID

Five more blue stamps, each worth 10 points, will be good for buying rationed processed foods on Tuesday, August 1, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

The stamps validated for August will be B-5, C-5, D-5, E-5 and F-5.

Five blue stamps, representing a total of 50 points, are validated on the first day of each calendar month. They may be used indefinitely.

Two or three years after the kapok tree starts to produce, it will yield about 600 pods, containing a total of about six pounds of fiber, every year.

FOOD IS AMMUNITION!

The responsibility of protecting the perishable food supply of a nation at war, falls squarely upon the Ice Industry

FRESH food is ammunition that must be supplied daily to our fighting men in training, our war workers and our civilian population — and ICE is the only known refrigerant that will protect our precious supply of vitamin-laden food on its long journey from producer to consumer.

Day and night, every day in the year, more than 140,000 refrigerator cars and many thousand refrigerated trucks packed to capacity with meat, fish, fowl, eggs, fruit and vegetables are on the move to military camps, markets and warehouses the country over.

During the past year this one service required more than twelve million tons of Ice — the largest amount ever used in the history of the country for transporting perishable foods.

California is the nation's largest producer of fresh fruits and vegetables. The Union Ice Company has played a significant part in the development of California's great market for fruits and vegetables. Without the protection of the many services which The Union Ice Company and its affiliates provide, the growers and shippers of California could not ship to canneries, markets and army depots the immense volume of food which is one of this state's greatest contributions to the war effort.

This year The Union Ice Company will produce twenty per cent more Ice tonnage than ever before in its history. Without this record-breaking production of nature's own refrigerant — ICE — much of California's vital food production would be lost to the nation. This is an achievement of which The Union Ice Company and its employees are justly proud.

****

Along with its vital war activities, The Union Ice Company is continuing its leadership in the Refrigeration Industry by constantly maintained research and post-war planning. After Victory comes we will be ready with many interesting innovations in product and service, as well as refrigerators of entirely new design.

THE UNION ICE COMPANY

The path of a lot of family troubles leads from the frying pan into the courts.

PEST CONTROL MEETING PLANNED

A pest control demonstration will be conducted here August 8 at the J. B. Leaman citrus grove, south side of Arrow highway, west of Mountain avenue. This will be one of four such demonstrations scheduled to discuss citrus bud mite and purple scale.

County pest control officials will also present to the growers the restrictions on imported citrus nursery stock into the county. The county inspectors will demonstrate how to inspect citrus orchards.

The local demonstration will open at 9:45 a. m.

Other demonstrations will be held at Fontana, Redlands and Highlands.

COUNTY REGISTERS 70,459 CARS SINCE FIRST OF YEAR

A recent compiling of figures shows that San Bernardino county has registered 70,459 cars, trucks and other vehicles since January 1. This is a small increase over a year ago, and the increase for the state has been 3.06 percent.

Registrations in the county show, 59,952 automobiles, 5,360 trucks, 452 motorcycles, 60 trailers with solid rubber tires and 4,635 trailers with pneumatic tires.

In the state 2,870,229 vehicles were registered during the first half of 1944. The state realized a total of $28,361,336, for a net gain of $2,214,566 over that period in 1943. This money will soon be apportioned back to the cities and counties for road construction and maintenance.

New Picture Features Citrus

The California citrus industry takes a bow in the new motion picture, "San Fernando Valley." The lady cowpuncher riding herd on the fruit is Dale Evans, featured with Roy Rogers in the Republic Pictures release.

Upland Library Adds Two New Books On Argentina

How did Argentina get that way, may be answered in either of two books just received at the library, "Argentina Diary, the Inside Story of the Coming of Fascism," by Ray Josephs, a man who has travelled all over South America and always with his ear to the ground.

From the forword by Allan Chase is quoted: "We are winning the war in Europe, holding our own in Asia, and losing the peace in Latin-America. Under our uplifted Anglo-Saxon noses, more than one Latin-American nation has already taken the fascist plunge and others are getting set to follow. Latin America is a lot closer to us, physically, than Pearl Harbor or Dieppe. Which means that if most of Latin America goes fascist, particularly if our appeasement of Spanish fascism at the same time permits Spain to come out of this war as a disguised fascist state . . . well, it means a third world war in less than twenty years.

Few books in the course of this war affect Americans as directly as does Argentine Diary. It is beyond doubt one of the most valuable written by an American since this war began."

"Argentina, Pivot of American Peace", by Henry Albert Phillips, who says that Argentina is the most talked about country in South America. But North Americans have been doing most of the talking, and the talk is not only one-sided, but definitely lop-sided. This mainly because very few North Americans know what made Argentina what she is today, still less the background of the Argentinean point of view. The big question with the Argentineans was not one of neutrality, but of wheat, corn and beef!"

MILITARY CENTERS SAVE FATS, TOO!

LABOR SUPPLY FOR HARVEST SUFFICIENT

The harvest of potatoes, plums and apricots in San Bernardino county is now drawing to a close and it is expected that same will be completed by the end of the current month, according to A. L. Campbell of the county extension office. The harvest of peaches is continuing, with a bumper crop and at prices which should encourage local housewives to preserve as much as possible. The corn crop is coming along nicely.

Harvest hands at present are sufficient to take care of current crops. The women in this area are helping out splendidly in cutting apricots and packing peaches. There is an ample supply of citrus pickers.

Some servicemen on furlough were placed in farm jobs this week. A total of 180 hands were placed in farm jobs through this office last week, filling the requirements of some 20 individual farmers. Openings continue for tractor drivers, milkers, irrigators, and general ranch hands.

Last Rites for Gertrude Eymann To Be Held Thursday

Miss Gertrude V. Eymann, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Eymann, passed away Sunday night at the family home, 814 Washington boulevard, following a long illness. She was 48 years of age.

Born in Moundridge, Kansas, Miss Eymann came to California when only eight years old and moved to Upland after one year's residence n Reedley. She was a member of the First Mennonite church of Upland.

For 10 years Miss Eymann was an instructor at the Grove school in Ontario, and prior to her public school work, she was employed at the Upland Commercial National bank. She was active in church musical circles and in young peoples work.

With her sunny disposition and kindly ways, she had endeared herself to a host of friends in the community, and thruout her long illness her cheerfulness, courage and fortitude in the face of intense suffering were an inspiration to her relatives and many friends who visited her.

Surviving Miss Eymann are five sisters, Mrs. A. J. Ruth, Mrs. Paul F. Schowalter and Mrs. Edna Harms, all of Upland; Mrs. Harry A. Ledig of Alta Loma; and Mrs. W. R. Goerz of Sacramento; a brother, C. C. Eymann of Long Beach; and 23 nieces and nephews. Both of her parents died some years ago.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the First Mennonite church, with the pastor, the Rev. Earl Salzman, officiating. Interment will be in Bellevue cemetery. The Stone mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

PRICE PITCHES JR. LODGE TO VICTORY OVER PLATE MILL

Bob Price, allowing one hit but no runs, in the Upland Twilight league, enabled the Junior Lodge to turn back the Kaiser Plate Mill with a 2 to 0 score Friday evening.

The Lodge scored one run in the first and again in the fifth, almost identical in methods. Leroy Graham, for the Lodge, gained life at first by virtue of a walk, then stole second and came home on Clyde Francisco's two-base hit. In the fifth, Stanley Gunstream walked, then stole second, and scored on a single by Bruce Stark.

Price allowed but one hit, no runs and struck out four hitters. Chovik, for the Plate Mill, allowed three hits, struck out six and allowed seven hits. Haggerty of the Plate Mill gathered the only hit for his team.

It can very easily be termed a "sixth inning spree" conducted by [illegible] General Elcetric nine on the [illegible]nd junior high diamond last night.

The "spree" resulted in four [illegible] to defeat the Upland Cubs. [illegible] a dozen hits were achieved [illegible]e hard-pounding G. E. diamond stars and this collection sent [illegible]s all of the evening's scores. [illegible]her Vanhoy, the steady and usually efficient flinger, performed in his usual style, but the aggressive visitors got to the Upland[illegible]r's offerings at the same time.

WEDNESDAY'S GAME

The Cubs will be on the diamond again Wednesday night, when the Kaiser Supply nine provides the opposition.

Shipments for the season are divided 2,291 cars of navel oranges, 1,534 lemons, 492½ cars of Valencias, 25 cars of miscellaneous oranges, and 129½ carloads of grapefruit.

"Did you get home all right last night, sir?" asked the street car conductor of one of his regular passengers.

"Of course. Why do you ask?"

..."Well, when you got up and gave the lady your seat last night, you were the only two people on the car."

Johnston, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, and prominent Episcopal Churchman, pleads that postwar planning be guided by moral and spiritual principles, and be based upon recognition of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. TRUCK TIRES WILL BE ISSUED IN L. A.

Those who are needing truck tires during this quarter will find it a little more difficult to secure them than in the past, Earl E. Hawthorne, chief clerk of the Ontario-Upland ration board, stated today.

Those needing truck tires will continue to file applications with the local board, which in turn will forward them to the Los Angeles office. This latter office is now issuing all certificates in this district and those finally approved will be mailed direct to the applicant from Los Angeles.

Mr. Hawthorne states that the quota of truck tires in this district has been cut in half for this quarter. He also said there is not much hope of having gasoilne allotments increased for some time, as the gasoline supply for civilians on the west coast has been reduced 7,000 barrels per day.

NO EXTRA CANNING SUGAR

Mr. Hawthorne also stated that contrary to some stories that are being circulated, there will not be any additional canning sugar approved over the present allotment of 20 pounds for each ration book.

"Your methods of cultivation are hopelessly out of date," said the "aggy" student. "Why, I'd be astonished if you get even ten pounds of apples from that tree."

"So would I," answered the farmer. "It's a pear tree."

A young man on a crowded street car arose, tipped his hat, and offered a young lady his seat. She was so overcome with such an unusual display of politeness that she fainted. She was soon restored to consciousness and restored to consciousness and she thanked the young man. Then he fainted.
